CABLES AND CONTROLS

Choose LHD (left hand drive) or RHD (right hand drive) for the cable you require - UK spec cars are RHD.

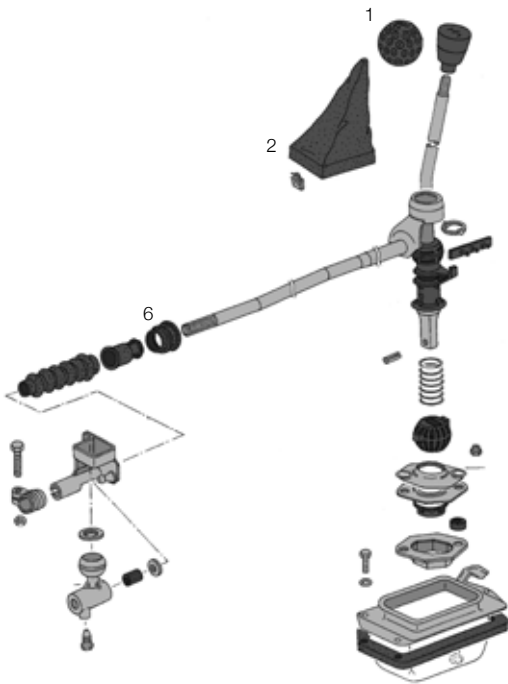

Your gear change problems could just be down to a broken or worn bush.

Carrying a spare clutch and accelerator cable is never a bad idea - you might need it one day.

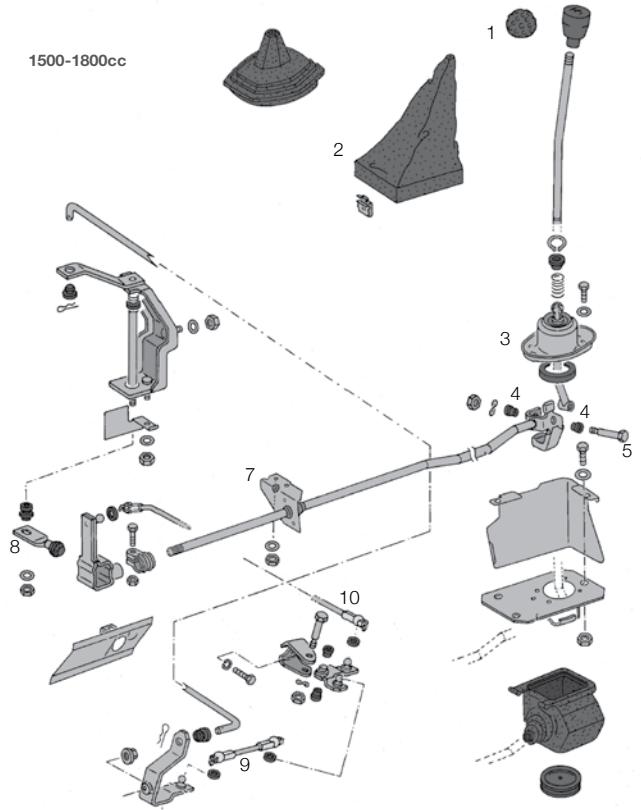

Cables listed may not be suitable for vehicles with engine conversions, please call for advice.

BRAKE PEDAL - RHD

Note: The RHD MK1 models are notorious for poor pedal response. This is because VW adapted a LHD shell and ran a linkage system instead of moving the servo and master cylinder to the right side.

BODY

In the UK series 1 Golfs had metal bumpers and small rear lights, except in 1979 when plastic bumpers were fitted. Series 2 cars have plastic bumpers and larger rear lights

Jetta, Cabriolet and Caddy models were only ever offered with plastic bumpers from the factory

The Mk1 chassis is home to the Golf, Jetta, Cabriolet, Scirocco and the front half of the Caddy! We have tried to include as many body parts as possible here, but please call us you can't seewhat you're after.

Treat Caddy's as 4 door Golf models to behind the doors, use 4 door sills, but 3 door rear arch panels.

INTERIOR

Need seat covers? Sadly at present we cannot offer OEM style seat covers. Please call to discuss custom requirements or fabric availability.

Can't tilt your seats forward to let your passengers in the back? The cable has probably snapped. Don't panic - we sell them.

Headliners - due to the size of this part and how fragile they are, we are unable to offer replacements at present.

Suffering from wet carpets? Check your door membranes, heater inlet on scuttle panel or sunroof drain tubes, all could be causing the problem.
